Joseph Int'l Freight Service

Joseph Int'l Freight Service is an international logistics provider licensed under the Federal Maritime Commission with agent offices globally. In 1996 Tony launched Joseph Int'l Freight Service to be able to offer manufacturers solutions to their logistics needs. Tony has been working in logistics in the international markets for more than 20 years, and has developed relationships and partners in Asia, Europe, Middle East and Australia. Joseph Int'l Freight Service has been featured in the Shipping Digest Magazine because of their logistics work for the 2004 Summer Olympic Games in Athens, Greece.

Tony is very active in Muscatine and is a strong advocate for community service and believes in the spirit of giving. He puts those values into practice through his volunteering and service provided to the greater Muscatine area, and towards global humanitarian efforts and has served on the boards of multiple organizations.

In May 2010, Tony Joseph was given the Volunteer of the Year Award from the Greater Muscatine Chamber of Commerce and Industry. Tony Joseph is a graduate of the Goldman Sachs 10K Small Business Program March 2021- that enhance practical business education focused on business growth.
